

Mimbre

Trustee Information Pack

August 2023

Thank you so much for your interest in joining the Mimbre Board of Trustees!

This pack should contain most of the information you need to make an application. If you have any further questions, or would just like a chat about whether Mimbre is right for you, please feel free to contact Lissy Lovett on lissy@mimbre.co.uk, 020 7613 1068 or 07931353531.

About the role of Trustee

Mimbre's Board of Trustees provide oversight and strategic direction to the organisation. The number of Trustees at any one time varies between five and nine people, and we always seek to have a mix of different kinds of people to get different views. Additionally:

- Mimbre's Board of Trustees are also its Directors under company law and have ultimate responsibility for the direction and governance of the organisation, although day-to-day management is delegated to the Artistic and Executive Directors.
- Trustees are appointed for a term of three years, and can be reappointed just once to a maximum of six years.
- Mimbre's Trustees are volunteers and typically do not receive payment for their time, although travel and accommodation expenses for Board meetings will be reimbursed. However, if not receiving payment for your time is a barrier to you becoming a Trustee, let Lissy know as it is possible to make exceptions¹.
- All Trustees must make a commitment to safeguard and promote the welfare of the young people that Mimbre work with.
- We ask each board member to contribute financially during the year to the charity – this can be as little as £1, but means that we can say in our annual report that everyone contributes.
- We offer training and a buddy system to make sure that new Trustees feel supported.

The Board meets four times a year in east or central London and over Zoom, and in addition the Trustees are asked to offer some specific advice, networking or help in their areas of expertise outside of these meetings. Once a year, to coincide with a board meeting, the board also attend a half day 'away day' to discuss Mimbre's strategy in more depth. Mimbre also encourages Board members to attend local performances and events.

A subset of board members including the Chair and Treasurer belong to a finance subcommittee. This group meets a week before each meeting to discuss the quarterly Management Accounts and any other financial matters. Joining this subcommittee is completely optional. In the near future we are likely to set up other subgroups on environmental responsibility and expanding our commercial opportunities.

What we're looking for

We'd love to speak to anyone with an interest in the arts and/or supporting young people, who's willing to give up some of their time to support our organisation. We're looking for trustworthy, positive, helpful people who are able to be critical when necessary but who will also help us improve. You don't need to have any experience of being on a Board.

At the moment, to make sure our Board covers a range of skills, we're interested in new Trustees with experience in communications, PR and marketing; fundraising; Outdoor Arts or producing and touring. But also, as our board members rotate regularly, we are continually looking for new people, so if you have other skills and experience that you'd like to contribute to our company we'd love to hear from you now as well.

Mimbre strongly believes in diversity and to make our board more representative we would really like to encourage applications from people who are in their 20s, 60s, 70s or 80s, people who identify as disabled, people from the global majority (black, Asian or other minority ethnic backgrounds) and people who are working class.

About Mimbre

Founded in 1999, Mimbre are a female-led producing company, creating delicate, breathtaking and highly-skilled acrobatic theatre for audiences in outdoor and unusual settings, touring nationally and internationally, with a strong digital presence. We collaborate across the Creative Industries, as consultants and creators. We run a vibrant local youth programme and an Artist Development Programme for physical performers.

We use circus and movement innovatively as a physical language to illuminate human connections. We pull down barriers to reach beyond social, financial, and cultural boundaries and facilitate everyone's place within the arts. In all our work we aim to challenge gender stereotypes and promote a positive, diverse, and inclusive image of cis and trans women as well as non-binary people.

We make at least two productions each year, including at least one tour, typically reaching around 20,000 live audiences from a wide range of backgrounds. In the last five years, our digital reach has been 3.5m. Partners include Dior, the RSC, The Lowry, National Centre for Circus Arts, Garsington Opera, Greenwich + Docklands International Festival and Stockton International Riverside Festival.

Our youth programme, Mimbre Youth, is rooted in the communities of our local borough of Hackney. It includes classes, community days, performance projects and progress routes. It is a place where young people can express themselves creatively, gain confidence and work as a team. Mimbre Youth focuses on access, inclusion and excellence, and pulls down barriers to enable every child to thrive, regardless of means or abilities.

Our Artist Development Programme advances circus and leadership through professional development initiatives, artistic research and knowledge sharing. We focus on mid-career performers, women, non-binary artists and those from under-represented backgrounds.

A collaborative approach permeates all aspects of our work, from our company structure to our relationship with our performers, audiences and participants. Working with a wide variety of artists, technical innovators and educators, across art forms and borders, allows us to continuously enhance our artistic vocabulary and create bold, challenging and highly skilled work.
